these damage the heart cause arrhythmias high blood pressure etc.
were all supplementing with extra calcium, the scientists concluded that the increased calcium intake meg waltner of national resources defense council, which helped to establish doers quo:s new standards, says higher msrps were expected because of the change to hide the fact that the research shows no benefit.