our guiding principal of do no harm means that when we consider products or procedures to prevent and treat illnesses, we always take into account the risk of side effects.

typically, only dosages higher than 6.5mg/kg per day are associated with retinopathy, but a few cases of this toxic retinopathy have been described at lower dosages.

meropenem is a bactericidal broad-spectrum carbapenem antibiotic that inhibits cell wall synthesis.