some lodges turn off their generators at midnight the pulsedirection configuration utility is used to set all the available parameters of the lmdxp and can be used in either basic or advanced modes then urine is stored in the bladder we provide our patients with a series of medications during the withdrawal process