It is significant that in the arches of the primitive races practically all teeth form and erupt normally, including the third molars. Maybe throw in some zinc and selenium.

Prior to entering the homes the RCMP should have stated that they would collect firearms not properly stored when searching houses and why they were doing so.